

APPOINTMENT OF SECOND DEPUTY GOVERNOR OF BANK OF GHANA

President John Dramani Mahama, in consultation with the Council of State, has appointed Dr. Johnson P. Asiamah as Second Deputy Governor of the Bank of Ghana.

The appointment takes effect from 5th April, 2016. Dr Asiamah until his elevation was the Assistant Director at the Economics Department of the Bank of Ghana where he coordinated the work of the Monetary Policy Committee and supported the work of the Governors directly.

He holds a PHD (Economics) from the University of Southampton UK and an MPHIL (Economics) from the University of Ghana, Legon.

He has also previously served as Director of the Macroeconomic Management Department at the West African Institute for Financial and Economic Management (WAIFEM) in Lagos, Nigeria.

Signed:

EDWARD KOFI OMANE BOAMAH (DR.)
(Minister)